

Obesity News
21st January 2010

US obesity rates appear to be slowing

Obesity, health concerns rise as parks and recreation programs decline

Experts urge screening for obesity in kids

Obesity linked to higher risk of kidney stones

Starting spoon feeding later may trim obesity risk

Innovative University of Queensland Tai Chi program treats depression, diabetes and obesity, Australia

BJOG Release: the pregnancy complications of maternal obesity

Antibiotic doses should take into account obesity, experts warn

Obesity screening should begin at age 6

NHS obesity operation access inconsistent, surgeons say

Axe the fat with a Viking diet

Sweden to prescribe exercise to battle youth obesity

OTHER

Doctors demand ban on man-made trans fats

Should women receive assisted reproduction treatment if they are obese, smoke or consume alcohol?

New Programme to make inequality everybody's business

Healthy lifestyles 'nudge' planned by Tories

Ban butter to save our hearts, says doctor

The Nutrition and Health Claims \(England\) \(Amendment\) Regulations 2010 - response deadline 29th March 2010

Archive news is available on
<http://www.iaso.org/HOPEObesityintheNewsArchive.htm>

The press links are provided for information only, their inclusion is not indicative of IASO/HOPE endorsement.

If you have any comments or articles for inclusion please email:
HOPENet@iaso.org

